H&H News

A well-deserved award!

H&H shareholder, Bill Woollacott, vice president, Actuarial Services, was awarded the first ever Coach Adrian Serrano Service Award during Opening Ceremonies for Windsor Little League on April 23rd. Coach Serrano passed away in January, and his family along with the Windsor Little League board of directors, created this award in his memory. The award honors a Windsor Little League volunteer who, like Coach Serrano, exemplifies the true spirit of community and giving. Bill was recognized for his involvement with the Windsor Little League that has spanned over 30 years.

Stuart Herskowitz, CRC, AIF, senior vice president. client relations, and Carline St. Vil, client relationship manager, retirement services, attended the recent Connecticut Association of School Business Officials (CASBO) Vendor Day, held on April 28th. They spent the day talking with school leaders and discussing H&H's CT Teachers' 403(b) program.

We are happy to support these upcoming events:
